

Dear Friends

I hope and pray that your Easter Joy was no less full for the limitations and caution we needed to apply to our celebrations. Please allow me to share three things with you of significance for this week.

- The Hallelujah Chorus is online – The Easter service version of Handel’s Hallelujah Chorus is now online for those who would like to share it with music fans among your friends and family. Each of the 16 ‘tracks’ had to be recorded separately and in sequence and then were arranged and balanced by Carla at the end. Thank you to Carla, Shauna, Brendan, and all of our singers for this gift. View it here:

- Easter Offering will make a difference – We received $5,565 in donations for this year’s Easter Offering. As was previously announced it will all go to capital improvements for Just A Warm Sleep, the overnight shelter for homeless people run by 1Just City at Augustine United Church. Thank you for your generous support.

- A Virtual Farewell for Laura – Join us at HeBrews e-café this Sunday as we thank Laura Rousseau for her time with us as a student minister and wish her well on her next adventure in ministry. This virtual send-off will be held on Zoom and begin at 10:00 AM this Sunday, April 11. The link information is:
